Grievance/Professional Standards Committee Application

Grievance Committee

Grievance reviews ethics complaints and requests for arbitration from agents and the public and determines whether they merit a hearing. The group also administers the Citation System. Membership requires an annual training session and minimum three years' experience as an agent. Caseload dictates meetings. Training to be a mediator is available.

Professional Standards Committee

Panels of Professional Standards members hold hearings to determine whether violations of the Code of Ethics have occurred or to resolve procuring cause issues. Membership requires an annual training session and minimum three years' experience as an agent. Caseload dictates meetings. Training to be an ombudsman is available.
